SUPERINTENDENT McCORMICK ENDORSES WEINZAPFEL FOR ATTORNEY GENERAL

EVANSVILLE, Ind. – Calling him the best choice for Hoosier families, today Indiana Superintendent of Public Instruction Dr. Jennifer McCormick endorsed Jonathan Weinzapfel for Attorney General.

A Republican, McCormick is the latest in a string of high-profile, bipartisan endorsements Weinzapfel, the Democratic nominee for Indiana Attorney General, has earned in recent weeks, including the Indiana State Building and Construction Trades Council and the Indiana State Teachers Association.

“This isn’t about politics, this is about who has the experience, the integrity and the vision to best represent all Hoosiers, especially our children,” said Dr. McCormick. “Jonathan has a well-earned reputation for bipartisan problem solving, for listening and for making a real difference in every job he’s had. That’s why I am supporting him and that’s why I am calling all Republicans to join me in supporting him.”

Prior to her election in 2016, Dr. McCormick was a special education teacher, taught middle school, served as a principal and was Superintendent of Yorktown Community Schools.

“Crossing party lines is never easy, so I am truly honored to have earned Dr. McCormick’s support, said Weinzapfel. “Like Dr. McCormick, I will always put people over politics. I will be an independent voice who will stand up for Hoosier families, who will work with anyone willing to work with me and who will seek common sense solutions to the many challenges that face us as a state.”

As Attorney General, Weinzapfel has pledged to protect Hoosiers’ health care, to fighting fraud, to ensure the criminal justice system works for all citizens and to make our communities safer. In the area of education, he would use the office help to better treatment and pay for teachers, support efforts to build a stronger educational system that focuses on educating and training young people for future success in college or in the workforce, and work to create greater accountability for all educational institutions that receive tax dollars.

Jonathan Weinzapfel was elected mayor of Evansville in 2003 and re-elected in 2007. After his two terms as mayor, Weinzapfel served as chancellor of the Ivy Tech Evansville campus from 2014-2019. He also served in the Indiana General Assembly as a state representative from 1999-2003. He currently works as a partner at the law firm of Jones Wallace in Evansville. Jonathan and his wife Patricia reside in Evansville and have three children.
