LAKE COUNTY DEMOCRATS ENDORSE WEINZAPFEL FOR ATTORNEY GENERAL

EVANSVILLE, Ind. – Adding to the momentum of his campaign for Indiana Attorney General, Jonathan Weinzapfel announced today he has been endorsed by the Lake County Democratic Central Committee City and Town Chairs.

“I’m honored by this endorsement and the faith that these community and party leaders have put in me and my campaign,” said Weinzapfel. “Being from Evansville, I understand the frustrations of many Lake County residents who feel neglected and ignored by Indianapolis. As attorney general, I’ll be a voice for them and for common sense reforms that improve the lives of all Hoosiers.”

This announcement follows the endorsements of the 8th District Democratic Party as well as more than 30 different labor unions, Democratic Party county chairs and elected officials from around the state.

“From Lake County to Vanderburgh County we are putting together the statewide coalition needed to secure the Democratic Party’s nomination this summer and to defeat Curtis Hill this fall,” added Weinzapfel.

A former state representative, mayor of Evansville and chancellor at Ivy Tech, Weinzapfel has a proven ability to bring people together to get things done. As attorney general, he is committed to restoring honor, integrity and purpose to the office, better protecting consumers throughout the state and ending frivolous partisan lawsuits like the one that is putting the health care coverage of nearly 400,000 Hoosiers in jeopardy.

Jonathan Weinzapfel was elected mayor of Evansville in 2003 and re-elected in 2007. After his two terms as mayor, Weinzapfel served as chancellor of the Ivy Tech Evansville campus from 2014-2019. He also served in the Indiana General Assembly as a state representative from 1999-2003. He currently works as a partner at the law firm of Jones Wallace in Evansville. Jonathan and his wife Patricia reside in Evansville and have three children.
